

Announcement

The Bill Taylor Research Proposal Team Award: The Global Politics of Food and Water

The Award: $1,000 will be given to the student team whose research proposal shows the greatest promise for resolving one or more features of the global food and water challenge

Purpose of the Award: Financial support for the team research project

Who Can Apply: A team of 4-6 high school or undergraduate college students

Proposal Length: Five pages, 12 font, double spaced

Judging Criteria:

1. Addresses an aspect(s) of the of food and water challenge
(Examples: farming, oceans, climate change, fresh water, GMOs; or, transportation, energy, politics, distribution, storage, preservation, marketing)
2. Has potential for meeting world food and water needs by 2050
3. Demonstrates Originality
4. Is Feasible

Time Line:

March 15	Application available for the Proposal Award
June 15	Team Research Proposal Due
June 16 – July 15	Proposal Judging
July 30	Announcement: Award Winner
August 1	Announcement Dissemination

For more information, contact: Karolyn Snyder, Education Committee

Chairperson: Karolyn.snyder@verizon.net